

sandy beaches, warm water, great fishing, scenic campsites...

at Murtle Lake, Wells Gray Provincial Park

At Murtle Lake trailhead with seven days' worth of food and camping gear - including the boat!

Making room for serious campers on the portage trail

Ready to launch at Murtle Lagoon

Whitecaps on the lake: a good excuse to stay overnight at Murtle Lagoon campsite

Murtle Lagoon campsite

Early morning on Murtle Lake

West Arm of Murtle Lake

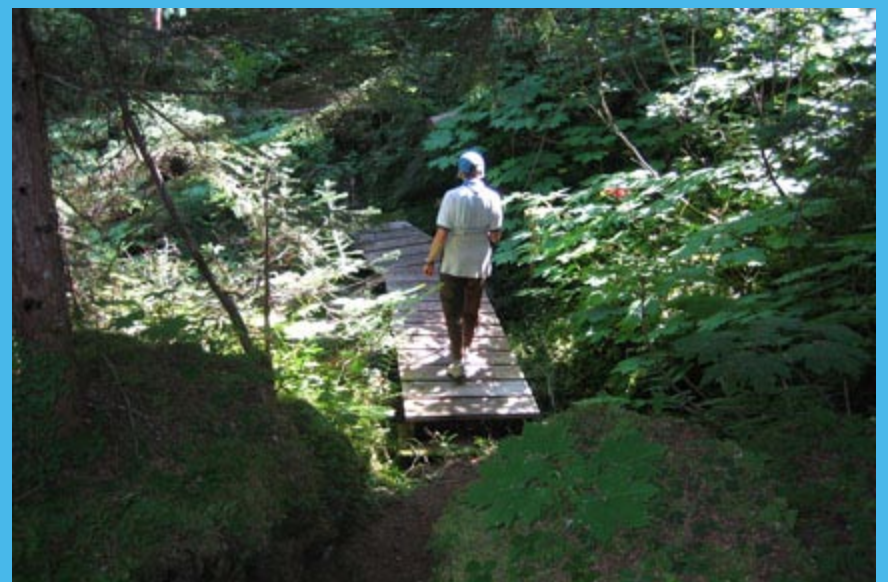

Golden sand on our beach at Cottonwood campsite

Evening at Cottonwood campsite. The canoe belongs to our neighbours

Loon gathering: a frequent event in the morning

On the trail to McDougall Falls (SW end of the West Arm)

Portaging into File Creek

Descending Central Mountain, West Arm of Murtle Lake below

Gourmet Murtle Lake Rainbow Trout

Shallow warm water, golden sand near Tropicana (West Arm), Leo Island in the centre

Zen-like rock and sand patterns near Cottonwood campsite

Paddling into the North Arm on a calm day

View from the camp at Strait Creek

Sunset at Strait Creek, looking towards the West Arm